

विद्या सर्वार्थ साधिका

ANANDALAYA
PERIODIC TEST – 1
Class :XII

Subject: Geography
Date : 18/07/2019

M.M: 40
Time: 2 Hour

General Instructions:

- 1) Answer the 1 mark questions in about 40 words.
- 2) Answer the 3 mark questions in about 80 to 100 words.
- 3) Answer of the 5 mark questions should not exceed 150 words.
- 4) Outline map of the World provided to you must be attached within your answer-book.
- 5) Use of templates or stencils for drawing outline maps is allowed.
- 6) All questions are compulsory.

1. Make a comparison of the key words used by Ratzel and Paul Vidal de la Blache for the definition of 'Human Geography'. (1)
2. Write the full form of CBR and CDR. How are CBR and CDR expressed? (1)
3. "In general, Asia has a low sex ratio". Justify the statement by giving any two supportive points. (1)
4. Mention any two sub fields of Economic Geography. (1)
5. Which linguistic family in India shares the maximum percentage of population? (1)
6. Anil has migrated from Devpur village to the nearby city. Choose the most appropriate pull factor from the given options, which might have been the cause of Anil's migration from a rural to an urban area: (1)
  - a) Anil's father's farm house needs a supervisor in Devpur village,
  - b) Anil being a qualified engineer got a suitable job in the city.
  - c) Disguised unemployment in agricultural sector is a common feature in Devpur village.
7. The most prominent stream of Intra State migration in India is: (1)
  - a) Migration of male population from Urban to Rural areas.
  - b) Migration of Female population from Rural to Rural areas.
  - c) Migration of female population from Urban to Rural areas.
8. Choose the correct statement among the following which shows the path of 'Neo-determinism'. (1)
  - a) Kari's office is artificially heated in winter at a comfortable 23 degrees Celsius in Norway.
  - b) Benda practices primitive gathering for his livelihood in the Abujh Maad hilly region of central India..
  - c) Roof top rain water harvesting is practiced in Gendatur village
9. The two states having the largest number of net out-migrants are: (1)
  - a) Uttar Pradesh and Bihar,
  - b) Maharashtra and Delhi,
  - c) Punjab and Hariyana

10. Choose the correct pair among the following which shows the 'dualism' character of Geography as a discipline: (1)
  - a) To study Geology and Geomorphology as two branches
  - b) Law making and descriptive approaches
  - c) Erosion and Deposition as two aspects
11. Analyze the view of Welfare, Radical and Behavioral school of thoughts respectively, about the concerns of Human Geography on social life. (3)
12. Discuss the factors responsible for imbalances in the sex- age ratio found in the rural and urban scenario of different parts of the world. Discuss any three points. (3)
13. "Demographic transition theory can predict the future population of any area." Discuss the three stages of demographic transition by providing a suitable diagram. (3)
14. Give a comparative analysis on the merits and demerits of "population density", "physiological density" and "agricultural density". (3)
15. Analyse any two reasons for population decline providing suitable examples. (3)
16. Write any five characteristic features of the population growth period of India from "1901-1921". (5)
17. Compare the population pyramids of Nigeria and Japan on any four aspects providing suitable diagrams. (5)
18. "Population distribution of the world is uneven". Name and explain any three Geographical factors and any two economic factors that influence the uneven distribution of population of the world. (5)